Elkins has trouble deciding on a name If you call your elf a family affair, it can be super fun, but it can also create some barricades. If your children are arguing about whose name they should use when naming a family elf, take all the names your family likes and write each one on a small piece of paper. Fold the papers one by one and put them in a bowl. Decide who will draw - you can either let the youngest draw, the oldest draw or see who pulls that shortest straw out of the broom. Make it fun! Whoever is chosen to draw, chooses one piece of paper from the bowl and that is the name of the family elf! It's fun, isn't it? How to start with an elf on a shelf If you've never done this fun tradition before, or if you're wondering what all the rules are, this is a good read on how to start with an elf on a shelf. When you buy your elf, if you get accessories, it comes with a doll and a book that tells the story of tradition. If you've never done Elf before, this is totally the year for it! I had the kids name us first and it's called Dolphin. One of my now 12-year-old twins called him... He was 5 at the time. Every year I added one new elf - so we have a couple and their name is Jack and Diane... so cute! Yes, I gave them a name! Lol Between these three elves, they get into a lot of mischief and every day kids enjoy waking up to see what new shenanigans elves are up to. You want to let your elf leave funny little notes for your kids using something like the farm letter board I used in those pictures. Here's another letter Remember, you can use the letter board to get your kids to leave notes for your elf or elf to leave notes for your children. Talk about a lot of fun!! You're wondering how I manipulated our elf's hands to get this taped to his mouth? I just used some sticky stuff from the back of the command hook. Brilliant, isn't it? Elf Welcome ideas When your elf arrives for the first time, you will read the book and name your elf. Well, I like the elf to leave a welcome letter. Now, if you've been doing this tradition for a couple of years, we have this welcome back letter that's super fun too! Editable Planning Calendar This calendar makes planning much easier. Just go in and exactly what you want to do every day. Print it ours and put it in a special place where kids don't find it, but you know. Know. what to expect every day.
